World Ag Expo Tour with Farm Wives-Feb. 14, 2007

TULARE, Calif.— Take a tour and taste the bounty of California grown products in the Central Valley. Join a World Ag Expo tour with farm wives-Feb. 14, 2007. The Farm to Fork Culinary Tour is $45 per person and departs at 9:30 a.m. and returns at 4:00 p.m.

Visit three old-fashioned family farms, enjoy flavorful tastings and get tips and recipes during an almond, peach and lavender tour arranged by working farm wives.

Tour departs the Heritage Complex in Tulare, Calif., at 9:30 a.m.. The first stop is Luke's Almond Acres in Reedley. Learn about almonds and other nut crops from Ed. Shop in Silva's country store filled with gourmet almond delights, gift packs and gift baskets to take home to your sweetheart! Enjoy tastings with fresh coffee.

Leave Luke's Almond Acres and travel to Wiebe Farms also in Reedley. Experience a third generation family farm. Lavone and Karen, farm wives, will guide you through a peachy experience with delicious tastings. Stop in their old barn and take home some peach jam or peach jalapeno jelly. You will also enjoy a tasty lunch indoors or under the arbor of Wiebe's historic barn.

Drive north to the Squaw Valley Herb Gardens and delight your senses in this fragrant garden as you are guided by Rosemary and Tim through their world of herbs and a hillside of lavender. Enjoy recipes and remedies with history and demonstrations. Delight yourself with some tea and cookies as you shop in their cottage.

Return to the Heritage Complex at the World Ag Expo by 4:00 p.m. For more information contact Lisa at 559-688-1030 or email lisa@farmshow.org.

The 40th annual World Ag Expo is Feb. 13 – 15, 2007. For more information call 800-999-9186 or 559-688-1751 or visit www.worldagexpo.com.
